

Income Protection Factsheet

Life can throw uncertainty at us such as illness or injury, which could leave you unable to work and struggling to pay the mortgage, bills or other essential outgoings. Income protection is a long-term insurance policy that helps make sure your monthly commitments are paid for until you return to employment or reach retirement age.

Regular payments (usually monthly) are made in place of your income. These range between 50% and 65% of your gross income.
