

Home Insurance Factsheet

Home insurance keeps your property and contents protected when the unexpected occurs. Home insurance is made up of building and contents insurance, which covers both your property and belongings under one policy. Home insurance can also cover any repairing and rebuilding costs.

Who Should Consider Home Insurance?

Home Owners - Buildings insurance is mandatory when taking out a mortgage, and in addition, it is an important policy to have in place when securing a new property as damage costs can be very high.

Landlords - It is a good idea to get home insurance to protect your investment. To see what options are available to you, please speak to your adviser.

Owners of a Freehold Property - It can be very expensive to pay out for any structural damage, so cover is highly advisable. Discuss the options available with your adviser.
